Dear Parents/Guardians,

There have been several questions regarding the tuition based pre-k program for the 2022-23 school year. RT-C ISD received approval from TEA to offer the tuition program this school year, and the decision to have the program this year was made due to there being a low enrollment of students that qualified for pre-k. It is difficult to predict how many students will qualify for pre-k for the next school year at this time. We will be able to determine the ability to offer a tuition program for next year as we approach the month of August.

I will send a notice out as soon as we are confident whether or not we will be able to offer tuition based pre-k in 2022-2023. If the district does offer the tuition program, instructions will be included in the notice for parents/guardians regarding when and where they can come to sign-up for available spots to ensure that everyone will have a fair opportunity to enroll for the program.

Sincerely,

Brandon Schovajsa
